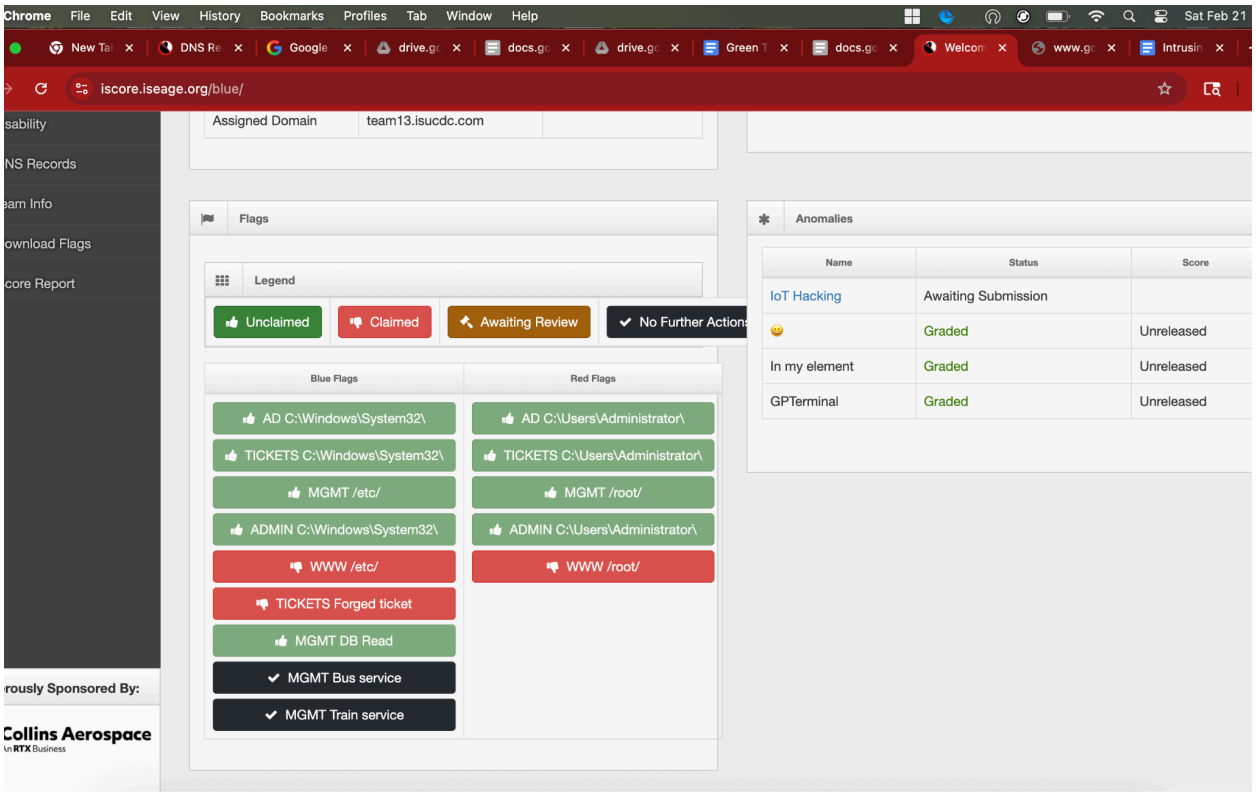
Intrusion report

Up until 9am we have lost 4 flags through 2 in management services we believe it has something to do with our logs and access to directory we where to resolve the issue yet still continuing to protect our server



As you can see we also lost our www in root and etc we are currently going through our www attempting to mitigate the issue and find how they accessed our flags